Dear Year 11 Parents and Carers,

We have been impressed with how hard Year 11 have been working in the weeks leading up to their exams, and we commend them for their impeccable behaviour in the exam hall so far.

During period 5 on Friday, straight after lunch, we will be holding a final assembly for Year 11 on both sites when we will celebrate their time with us over the past 5 years. Students will be allowed to sign shirts during this lesson only; we will also enjoy some cakes and a few words from their tutors and Heads of Year. Students who do not catch a bus may be allowed to leave at 14:45.

Following the half term break, Year 11 students have a number of exams close together and we have therefore taken the decision that Year 11 study leave will start straight after half term so that they can concentrate on their revision for their remaining exams. At this point, Year 11 students will only be required to be in school for their examination and revision sessions prior to each exam; these are shown on the attached timetables (exams are in blue and revision sessions are in yellow).

At these times, students must attend in full school uniform; students should go to their usual classroom during their revision sessions with their class teacher. If your son/daughter needs to catch the bus to travel to and from school, we will open up supervised quiet study areas for them to go and work in during the day when they are not in an exam or revision session.

Students should use the information on the website which details the advanced information for each exam to support their revision alongside any work set by their teachers whilst studying at home.

If you have any questions, please contact your son or daughter's Head of Year.

We wish Year 11 all the best for the rest of their exams over the coming weeks.

Kind regards,

Mr Brennan Miss Gilligan
